HOMEWOOD-FLOSSMOOR HIGH SCHOOL COURSE SCOPE & SEQUENCE

C1— Periodization guidelines are used to select relevant course content from 8000 B.C.E. to the present.

C2, The five overarching themes articulated in the Course Description receive approximately equal attention throughout the course. The course requires students to engage with the dynamics of continuity and change across the historical periods that are included in the course.

C3— The course provides balanced global coverage, with Africa, the Americas, Asia, and Europe all represented. No more than 30 percent of course time is devoted to European history.

C4— The course teaches students to analyze evidence and interpretations presented in historical scholarship.

C5— The course includes extensive instruction in analysis and interpretation of a wide variety of primary sources, such as documentary material, maps, statistical tables, works of art, and pictorial and graphic materials.

C6— The course provides students with frequent practice in writing analytical and interpretive essays such as document-based questions (DBQ) and thematic essays addressing issues of change, continuity, and comparison
