

conflation (kən flā' shən) noun

- Definition: Two or more things or ideas combined into one
- Word Part: com/con = together
- Sentence: The student tried to pass off as his original work an essay that was actually a conflation of two papers he'd bought off the Internet.

Week of April 13

