H-F HIGH SCHOOL'S GROUP INTERPRETATION PLACES 2ND IN STATE COMPETITION

Flossmoor, IL, March 17, 2008 – H-F High School's Group Interpretation members took 2nd Place at this year's IHSA State Drama and Group Interpretation Competition on March 15th and 16th, at the University of Illinois in Springfield.

H-F's Group Interpretation production of Passion Play, directed by Jill Bonavia-Galligani and Janine Stroemer with technical direction by Kevin Wall, placed 2nd out of 18 performances in State. Also, six H-F students were named to the All-State Group Interpretation Cast, which were the most students chosen from any other school at this year's competition. In order to be named to an All-State Cast, four out of five judges must nominate the student for his or her outstanding individual performance.
