BEST-SELLING AUTHOR EARL SEWELL RE-VISITS H-F HIGH SCHOOL TO RELATE HIS NEW BOOK TO STUDENTS

Flossmoor, IL, July 24th, 2008 – Author and South Holland resident Earl Sewell revisited H-F High School to discuss how his new book “If I Were Your Boyfriend” relates to H-F students on Wednesday, July 23rd, in the South Building Library. Sewell visited H-F recently in March to talk about his other book “Keysha’s Dream,” which has many references to his childhood growing up on the west side of Chicago.

During the visit, students had the chance to ask any questions they had for Sewell after reading the book themselves. From their questions, Sewell put together real-life situation skits that helped students relate to the situations characters in the book encountered. Attendees also received a free copy of the book along with an auto-graph by Sewell himself.
