H-F HIGH SCHOOL HOSTS SENIOR CITIZENS' HALLOWEEN BREAKFAST AND TOUR

Flossmoor, IL, September 30th, 2008 – Homewood-Flossmoor High School is set to host its annual Senior Citizens' Breakfast and Tour at 9 a.m. on Halloween, October 31st, in the South Building Cafeteria. All senior citizens who are residents of District 233 are invited to attend this free event!

The morning will include a light breakfast, a general overview of the school, raffles and prizes, and a student-guided tour of the South Building. In addition, a student musical performance will be provided. Seniors citizens who would like to attend are requested to RSVP by October 17th by leaving a message stating your name and number of guests at 708-335-5581. Costumes are optional!

H-F High School is located at 999 Kedzie Avenue in Flossmoor. Seniors are asked to please enter at the gymnasium entrance on Kedzie. Parking will be available near that entrance.
