HOMEWOOD-FLOSSMOOR HIGH SCHOOL RETIRED BASKETBALL COACH ROY CONDOTTI TO BE INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Flossmoor, IL, January 8th, 2009 – Representatives at the 37th Annual Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame Induction Dinner will be honoring H-F High School Retired Basketball Coach Roy Condotti for his accomplishments on April 25th, 2009, at the Union Ballroom at Illinois State University in Normal, Illinois. The Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame consists of six categories: players, coaches, news media, officials, friends of basketball, and teams.

Condotti was hired as H-F High School's Head Boys Varsity Basketball Coach in 1995 and retired in 2005. His record at H-F was 183 wins and 95 losses. While at H-F he won one conference championship, four regionals, three sections, one super-sectional, and placed 2nd in the State in 2004. His overall Varsity Head Coaching career record was 385 wins and 157 losses.

The permanent Hall of Fame Room at Illinois State University was officially dedicated in 1976 and contains plaques and pictures of the greatest basketball personalities that the state of Illinois has produced. They have moved the Hall of Fame from Horton Field house at ISU to the Holiday Inn North (formerly The Sheraton) in Normal.
