H-F HIGH SCHOOL TO HOST 2009 ADVANCED PLACEMENT SHOWCASE

Flossmoor, IL, January 14, 2009 – H-F High School invites all incoming freshmen, current freshmen and sophomores, and their parents to attend the 2009 Advanced Placement (AP) Showcase from 6:30 pm – 8:30 pm on Thursday, January 22nd, in the South Building Auditorium.

The AP Showcase begins with a presentation by Mr. Scott Ham, Director of Admissions at Butler University, who will discuss the advantages of experiencing a rigorous high school curriculum. Several H-F students who are currently enrolled in AP classes will discuss their experiences as well. Afterwards, attendees will have an opportunity to visit three mini AP-classes where they will meet the AP teachers and get an overview of course expectations and typical assignments.

The 2008 school year shows that an estimated 1500 students are enrolled in the 23 AP courses available. Also, the College Board's 2008 List of AP Scholars shows 136 Homewood-Flossmoor High School students earned the designation of AP Scholar in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Program (AP) Exams.
