HOMEWOOD-FLOSSMOOR HIGH SCHOOL'S FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY ADVISORY BOARD OFFER 2009 SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY CONTEST TO H-F STUDENTS

Flossmoor, IL, March 18th, 2009 –H-F High School's Friends of Library Advisory Board is pleased to announce this year's winner of the Senior Scholarship Essay Contest will receive $500. Each year the Friends of Library Advisory Board raises funds to provide a scholarship award for the best essay written by a graduating senior on a specific topic.

This year's essay question is: "During the difficult times our country is facing, President Obama has urged everyone to pitch in and get involved in their communities. Explain to an incoming freshman the significance and importance of getting involved in our H-F High School community."

Entries should be in the form of a 250-300 word essay and should clearly present the writer's reasoning for the literary character selected. Entries must be typed and will be judged by a panel of students and staff.

The contest deadline is Monday, April 20th, 2009. All entries may be dropped off at the Circulation Desk in the HFHS Library. If you know a graduating senior who is planning on attending college in the fall, please encourage him or her to submit an essay for this scholarship award.

If you have any questions about this essay contest, please contact Kathy Tisoncik in the HFHS Library at 335-5563 or be email at ktisoncik@hfhighschool.org
