H-F Summer Theater Students Showcase Their Talents in *The Music Man Jr.

Flossmoor, Ill. July 23-24, 2010 –Children of the H-F community present The Music Man Junior, the younger version of the famous Broadway musical, The Music Man.

Fifty-two students ranging from second grade to high school senior have been working together since summer began at the H-F summer theater program. The workshop runs during the days of the H-F summer school sessions, and gives young talented students the chance to interact and learn from seasoned high school theater veterans. During the program, students learn new acting techniques and theater games along with their lines, songs and dance moves.

The length of the musical is slightly shorter than the original, giving audiences of all ages-especially young children-the opportunity to enjoy.

The Music Man follows traveling salesman, Harold Hill, as he works to con the people of River City, Iowa into buying instruments and uniforms for a new boys' band. The only problem is, Hill promised to organize the band, but knows nothing of music or instruments. His plan is to leave town with the townspeople's money, but his love interest, Marian, has other ideas.

The Music Man runs Fri. July 23 and Sat. July 24, at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. each day. The cost of tickets is $5 for children, students and senior citizens, and $7 for adults. Tickets can be purchased at the box office the day of the show.
