

Seminar Leaders Promote Success in Others

Leading to Enhance student
Achievement,
Direction,
Enterprise, and Responsibility

Homewood-Flossmoor Community High School

For more information about Seminar in Teaching & Learning Leadership contact

Mrs. Lauren Freeman
Reading Department Chair
708-335-5009
lfreeman@hfhighschool.org

Seminar in Teaching & Learning Leadership

*Students Leading
Students to Success*

Homewood-Flossmoor
Community High School
www.hfhighschool.org

Seminar in Teaching & Learning Leadership Description

Students enrolled in Seminar in Teaching & Learning Leadership serve as peer leaders for students enrolled in Seminar in Teaching & Learning. Leaders work with small groups and individuals during the workshop portion of each day's class, assisting students with their work in the core subject areas of English, math, science, and social science.

Additionally, leaders collaborate with Seminar in Teaching & Learning teachers to plan and implement whole class activities and lessons.

Who Should Become a Seminar Leader?

H-F upperclassmen who...

- Know how to study and earn good grades.
- Stay involved with extra curricular activities.
- Possess friendly, outgoing personalities.
- Plan to take on leadership positions in their professional lives.

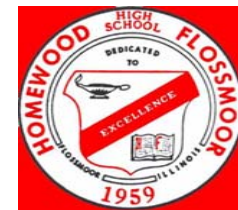

Seminar Leader Testimonials

My best experience has been....

- “Motivating others to believe in themselves.”
- “Interacting with and learning to understand different groups of people.”
- “Making new friends and gaining new knowledge.”
- “Becoming confident in my leadership skills.”
- “Hearing, ‘Thanks to you, I got an A!’”

LEADERSHIP OBJECTIVES

As Seminar Leaders assist others, they reinforce and expand their subject matter knowledge while they hone their communication and leadership skills. Additionally, Seminar Leaders improve their own study skills, identify their preferred learning styles, utilize their multiple intelligences, and identify their inner character and intra-personal qualities.

Homewood-Flossmoor Community High School

For more information about Seminar in Teaching & Learning Leadership contact

Mrs. Lauren Freeman
Reading Department Chair
708-335-5009