

Public Act 101-0504

This legislation requires IMRF to post certain employer cost and participation information on its website. IMRF updates these reports annually.

The law also requires IMRF employer that have a website to include a link to the IMRF page on which this information is found.